

Centrica and data from Mixergy hot water tanks

This notice applies to users of Mixergy hot water tanks, who have set their scheduling to “Standard” or “Economy”.

If you have set your tank to either of these, Mixergy controls the scheduling. As part of its decision-making process, Mixergy attempts to help National Grid with “demand side response”: a process of trying to level out the country’s energy usage.

We — Centrica plc — help both National Grid and Mixergy with this, and this notice sets out how we process your personal data.

In summary, we receive an identifier for your Mixergy device and heating-relating updates (this may include your device ID, utilisation data, meter point number and postcode). We may aggregate your device’s information with information about other Mixergy devices, and we provide this combined data to the National Grid. We will also provide your device ID, utilisation data, meter point number and postcode to the National Grid for their verification purposes.

You can contact our data protection officer by writing to The Data Protection Officer, Centrica Plc, Millstream, Maidenhead Road, Windsor, Berkshire, SL4 5GD or by emailing privacy@centrica.com.

You can contact Mixergy by writing to Mixergy Limited, 2 Canal View, Wharf Farm, Eynsham Road, Cassington, Oxfordshire, OX29 4DB, or through its website, <https://www.mixergy.co.uk/contact-us>.

1. Personal data we receive

If you have set your Mixergy device’s scheduling to “Standard” or “Economy”, Mixergy will transfer us the following data:
